

CAEP Annual Reporting Measure 7: Ability to be Hired– Newberry College

In South Carolina in 2017-2018, 4,914 teachers left the profession, while only 1,684 teacher candidates completed teacher education programs within the state. That is a shortage of 3,230 teachers, statewide [Center for Educator Recruitment, Retention, and Advancement – CERRA report]. In this environment, with districts desperate to hire certified teachers, Newberry College graduates are well positioned and often receive job offers from multiple school districts prior to graduation.
